

Dear People of Iran,

Your courage in standing up for freedom and human rights has been seen around the world. What you are facing is not normal, the violence used against protesters and the multiple attempts to silence you have caused great loss. And it is unfair.

Know that many people support you and are thinking of you. And we hope your voices will be heard. And that you get the justice and freedom you deserve.

